

PROTECTING THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Singapore is governed by the rule of law. The legal system in Singapore is among the best in the world, and enjoys the trust and confidence of Singaporeans. This is valuable and must be maintained.

Why is the administration of justice important?

Ensures that court orders are obeyed

If court orders are not enforced, the person who won the case would not obtain the justice they are entitled to.

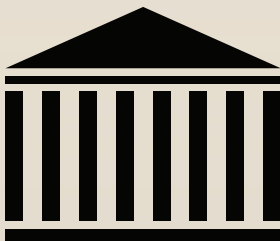

of Singaporeans believe there is a need for effective enforcement of court orders.*

Prevent trial by media

Everyone is entitled to a fair trial free from external influence. Only a court should decide the outcome of the case.

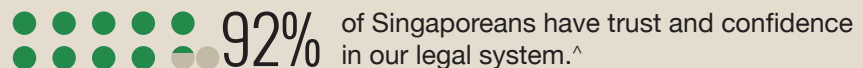

of Singaporeans are in favour of keeping outside influence from affecting on-going court proceedings.*

Protect the judiciary from personal attacks

When the judicial system is not trusted and respected, the lives of ordinary Singaporeans, families, and businesses are affected.

of Singaporeans have trust and confidence in our legal system.^

of Singaporeans agree that Singapore is governed by the rule of law.^
